

a 1904 mule fight, truck wrecks on Donner Summit, and an asphalt silo crushing the cab of a truck, remind us of the dangers that can occur on the road. Others, especially ones of the old trucks and neon signs, leave you nostalgic.

Nevada's Teamsters, Truckers and Truck Stops takes you on a journey through one of America's most essential and dynamic industries, in one of our nation's most fascinating states. Jerry provides an important look back to help us see where we are going in the future. Exactly what that future will hold... as Jerry says, "Like always, only time will tell."
